

Kitsilano Secondary School PAC

Knowledge is Power

WHAT'S NEXT ...

Join representatives from Langara College and Quest university to learn about options available to your children for their post-secondary path, and be introduced to the resources to keep you informed.

Both events will take place in the Kitsilano Secondary School Theatre.

Tuesday, November 12, 2019, 7 PM

LANGARA COLLEGE

Mindy Pei, Admission Coordinator, will be presenting degrees, transfer programs, and vocational diplomas (eg. Early Childhood Educator), and the partnership programs with SFU and Queen's University

If you are considering law career, you will then be interested to listen what VICTORIA SHROFF has to say.

Victoria Shroff is credited as one of the first and longest serving animal law lawyers in Canada. She has been practicing animal law for 20 years in downtown Vancouver at Shroff and Associates and is also Adjunct Professor of animal law at Allard School of Law at UBC.

NANCY KARTSONAS will share with us her expertise about different programs available within local and out-of-province universities, and what parents and students need to know while applying to universities.

BCIT

Willa Bao, Admission Advisor, will present very broad range of programs from degrees, to technical diplomas (eg. biomedical engineering) and trades offered at BCIT.

Wednesday, November 13, 2019, 7PM

VSB CAREER PROGRAMS

Rhonda Stangeland and Wendy Gilmour will provide the latest information on career opportunities, programs and apprenticeships sponsored by community partners.

QUEST UNIVERSITY

Forrest Rynearson, Senior Admission Counsellor, will present Canada's first independent, not-for-profit, secular liberal arts and science university, located in Squamish, and their personalized academic program of Bachelor of Arts and Sciences.

VANCOUVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE will present the vocational programs and other academic, cultural and environments related training.

LATTITUDE GLOBAL VOLUNTEERING

Owen Connell will be there to talk about the tangible benefits of taking a gap year and discuss international volunteering opportunities.
