

Kitsilano Secondary School PAC

Knowledge is Power

WHAT'S NEXT ...

Join us on Wednesday, January 29, 2020, at 7pm, to learn about options available to your children for their post-secondary path, and be introduced to the resources currently available in our community.

The presentation will take place from 7pm until 9pm in the Kitsilano Secondary School, in Drama auditorium on second floor. We will have greeters at the main entrance (of the school on Trafalgar) directing you to the auditorium.

The event is hosting the following presenters:

* Rhonda Stangeland, Career Education Coordinator, and Wendy Gilmour from VSB Career Programs on discovering the many career opportunities in trades available for high school students and work experience options.

* CDI College on dozens of programs providing hands-on career training.

CDI College maintains close ties with the business, technology and health care industries to continually assess our curriculum and gain insight about industry needs. CDI College prepares students to enter the working world with practical, hands-on learning experiences.

As an incentive, you can choose from day or evening classes* to fit your busy schedules.

* Guy Dansereau from Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts presenting professional diploma programs in culinary arts.

Chef Guy is originally from Montreal and moved to Vancouver 3 years ago via Chicago, IL and Monterey, CA.

After spending the first part of his career in process chemical sales, Guy decided to change paths to follow a life-long interest for food, people, and culture.

A graduate of the culinary training program at Kendall College in Chicago, Guy has held various positions as an instructor, consultant, business owner, and catering chef.

As the Associate Director of Admission at PICA, he looks forward to sharing his experiences and passion for the food service industry!
